

Dear Colleague,

Project Magis is hosting its Fifth Annual Cocktail Reception to benefit the Catholic Charities Appeal of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, to be held at the law offices of Cozen O'Connor P.C. on Monday, October 16 at 5:30 p.m. The Most Reverend John J. McIntyre, D.D., V.G., Bishop and Auxiliary to the Archbishop of Philadelphia will offer remarks.

The Magis Award will be presented to Regina Stango Kelbon, Esq., Partner, Blank Rome LLP. The Magis Award is given to individuals in the Greater Philadelphia business community who, regardless of creed, have demonstrated respect, dignity, kindness, and humility toward others in the performance of their duties and in their profession. Honorees are committed to service rooted in solidarity and justice, increasing the common good by doing more for others, and creating a better society and life for those around them.

As you may know, Project Magis is a networking group of financial services, corporate restructuring, M&A, and professional services colleagues dedicated to helping others in the local community. Our fundraising will help support the developmental programs offered through Catholic Social Services. Children, men, and women with intellectual and physical disabilities are served through programs at St. Edmond's Home for Children and The Communities of Don Guanella and Divine Providence. The organizations provide a continuum of care through a wide range of programming options in vibrant, safe, and loving environments. Programs include community and campus-based living arrangements, the Life Sharing Through Family Living Program, day program services, and in-home and out-of-home respite care services.

Last year, the Catholic Social Services Developmental Programs division, serving youth and adults with intellectual disabilities, provided:

- Essential services to 1,561 individuals and families.
- Residential programs for 333 individuals, including community-based group homes, two campuses with cottage residential programs, and a family living program in adult foster family settings.
- Day programs providing community participation and employment for 170 individuals.
- An unforgettable experience for 47 young participants at St. Edmond's Home for Children Summer Camp.

We are reaching out to our colleagues to raise funds to help feed those in need. Thanks to Cozen O'Connor's hospitality and the generosity of Planning Committee members, 100% of the proceeds from this event will go to support the Catholic Charities Appeal.

Please join us and consider a corporate sponsorship; we have enclosed an Event Sponsorship Form for your convenience, or complete it online at catholiccharitiesappeal.org/projectmagis. If you have any questions, please contact Gina DeColli by phone at (215) 587-5650 ext.115 or by email at ProjectMagis@thecfcp.org, or Chris Lawler by phone at (267) 251-9094 or by email at clawler@grahampartners.net.

We look forward to seeing you on October 16, 2023.

Sincerely,
Project Magis Leadership
