

2023 MAGIS AWARD RECIPIENT

REGINA STANGO KELBON, ESQ.

Regina Stango Kelbon represents creditors' committees, debtors, institutional lenders, lender groups, creditors, executory contract parties, equipment lessors, plan of reorganization proponents, and asset purchasers in areas including Chapter 11 reorganizations, out-of-court restructurings/assignments for the benefit of creditors/receiverships, debtor-in-possession financing, inter-creditor relationships, and lender liability issues. Chambers USA ranks Regina as a leader in bankruptcy and restructuring law in Delaware and Pennsylvania. Based upon exceptional recommendations in her field, Chambers recognized Regina as a "Star Individual" for Bankruptcy/Restructuring - Philadelphia & Surrounds in 2021 and 2022.

Regina is the Co-Chair of Blank Rome's Philadelphia Office and serves on the Firm's Executive Committee. Regina is a Fellow in the prestigious American College of Bankruptcy where she serves as the National Chair of the Education Committee for all Circuits. Regina serves as a mediator for the Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. She also frequently lectures and writes on insolvency and restructuring issues for the Pennsylvania Bar Institute and the American Bar Association. Regina is a current member of the Strategic Planning Committee of Catholic Social Services and prior board member. Regina organizes and serves Christmas and other holiday dinners/parties at Mercy Hospice, a homeless shelter for the city's women and children.
