2025 MAGIS AWARD MARK MINUTI

Mark Minuti is a Partner in Saul Ewing LLP's Bankruptcy and Restructuring Practice Group and a Vice-Chair of the Firm's Transactional Department. Resident in the Firm's Wilmington, Delaware office since 1989, Mr. Minuti concentrates his practice in commercial workouts, restructurings, and bankruptcy matters.

Mr. Minuti's practice includes the representation of debtors, borrowers, creditors, contract parties, unsecured creditors' committees, equity committees, examiners, trustees, asset purchasers, and landlords both in and out of Delaware. Mr. Minuti also represents reorganized debtors, committees, officers, directors, trusts and creditors in sophisticated insolvency-related litigation.

The Magis Award is given to individuals in the Greater Philadelphia business community who, regardless of creed, have demonstrated respect, dignity, kindness, and humility toward others in the performance of their duties and in their profession. Honorees are committed to service rooted in solidarity and justice, increasing the common good by doing more for others, and creating a better society and life for those around them.
